THE RUTLAND WEEKLY HERALD, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1866.

RUTLAND HERALD.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1866.

Convention of Vermont Soldiers.

The Convention of Vermont State soldiers assembled at the court house in Burlington, Monday evening, and, according to the Times, was a spirited and enthusiastic gathering. The number present was quite large, and every regiment detachment or organization that was ever in the United States service from Vermont was well represented.

The speeches were excellent, the resolutions capital, and the delegates appointed to the Pittsburg Convention true representatives of the feelings of the soldiers of Vermont upon the momentous issues of the hour.

The convention was called to order by Col. Redfield Proctor, of Rutland, who nominated as Chairman Major William Rounds, of Chester. Major Rounds was unanimously elected, and upon his com. ing forward was received with cheers.

He spoke briefly, returning his thanks for the honor conferred upon him. The object of the convention, he said, appears from the call. No one questions the right of the soldiers to hold this convention. We are assembled at a time quite as critical as any during the war. Then the only controversy was how the blows could be struck hardest and thickest. Now there was an inclination to compromise; an effort to bring the country over to "my policy." The soldiers, however, had no idea of yielding the control of the government to those whom they had lately met on so many hard fought battle fields. After again thanking the convention, Major Rounds took his seat amidst great applause.

Sergt. Joseph G. Perkins, of Castleton, and Sergt .- Maj. George Church, of Burlington, were then elected Secretaries of the convention.

The following Vice-Presidents were also elected : Sergt. Thomas T. Sanborn of Strafford; Sergt. E. M. Sherman, of Castleton; Private Spafford Wright, and | Capt. John Lonergan, of Burlington.

On motion of Col. W. G. Veazey, of Rutland, the Chair appointed the following Committee on Resolutions :-- Col. W. G. Veazey, Rutland; Lt. Col. Lyman E. Knapp, of Middlebury ; Lt. Col. Aldace F. Walker, Wallingford ; Lt. G. G. Beuedict, Burlington; Sergt. Luci's Bigelow, do.

Col. T. O. S caver, of Cavendish, moved that a committee of one from each regiment, battery, and detachment be appointed to report a list of names for delegates to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention at Pittsburg. The motion was carried, and the following gentlemen appointed said committee:

First Rey	iment	-Lt. Col. W Y W Ripley
Second	44	Lt. Col. A S Tracy
Third	- 44	Col. T O Seaver
Fourth	64	Capt. A K Nichols
Fifth	- 66	Capt. S E Burnham
Sixth	13	Capt. L S Williams
Seventh	22	Lieut, Wm L Harris
Eighth		Major J L Barstow
Ninth	44	Col. S E Stowell
Tenth	66	Gen. W W Henry

a government of free and enlightened people, and not of a despot. (Applause.) How shall we meet the issue? The President has put forth a declaration of war during the exhibition of his menagerie through the country. (Laughter.) He has given notice that there will be another war, an internecine war, unless his policy prevails. Let the war come. It won't take the Union men of Vermont long to take care of the Copperheads in their midst. (Applause.) Does he suppose the American people are to be frightened into supporting "my policy ?" Where is his army, and its head 7 Traitors, villains, and sneaking copperheads, his bosom companions, would compose his army. It would be a war of Union men against copperheads and traitors. It would be the rebellion started anew, with Andrew Johnson instead of Jefferson Davis at its head. (Applause)

Mr. Johnson began to reconstruct the rebel states after his plan. Congress assembles, and proposes several amendments to the Constitution. They go be-fore the people. Though all this is done in a perfectly constitutional manner, we find the President flying into a great rage about it. He makes the ceremonies in honor of the lamented Douglas an occasion for going around the country lauding his policy and decrying that of Congress. What are these amendments? You know that when the Constitution was adopted the Southern States were allowed representation for three-fifths of their slaves. These slaves are now free and count their full number. It is not fair that the South should have gained in representation, but the Constitution must be so amended that the slaves shall have the right to vote if they are counted, in apportioning representatives. Another amendment is that the national debt shall be paid. Another is that the rebel debt shall not be paid, [Applause.] These are the points briefly stated. There is no reason for the President railing against the amendment. The people will decide, It will be adopted.

President Johnson, through his organ, the New York Times, intimates war. Mr. Raymond, editor of that sheeet, supposes a case, which never will happen, that if copperhead and Southern members should constitute a majority of Congress, the President will recognize them as the regular legitimate Congress, and hence he (Mr. Andrews) thought we should elect Cury sound Union men, that the rebels might not have a majority. We shall have not only two-thirds but three-fifths of the members of the next Congress. So the issue will be settled. The duty of the soldiers and people is to see that none but trusty men are sept to the National Legislature. After paying an eloquent tribute to Vermont, his native State, Mr. Andrews closed by urging the soldiers to see that no Andrew Johnson causes our flag to trail in the dust. Mr. Andrews was frequently applauded during the delivery of his stirring address, and the convention fully endorsed the views so forcibly expressed. MAJOR ROUNDS' REMARKS.

After Mr. Andrews concluded his remarks, Maj. Rounds, President of the convention, was loudly called for and spoke as follows: He said the golden opportunity for him to speak had passed. He did not come to speak or preside. He came in response to the call which he fully endorsed. Vermont soldiers have made a record which shall go down to posterity and be as enduring as their native hills. It remains for Vermont to be represented at the Pittsburg convention. Not that there has been any doubt about her position on this question; there never has been any since the days of Ethan Allen. It had been intimated that the soldiers were particular friends of the President's policy. It remains to disprove this. The question is, shall Ver-mont be true to Vermont? The onearmed and one-legged veterans on his right and left spoke volumes in reply. Should men who have violent treason in their views come back and control the government? Let Andy Johnson ge on. He is running his machine into the ground. He is establishing the principle for which Vermont soldiers fought. Let us of Vermont turn out a large delegation to prove that Vermont soldiers are true. Andrew Johnson's term will expire in about two and a half years, and his name will go down to posterity load-

Mr. Johnson to understand that this is easy thing, and there are many who believe "everything to be lovely," but it is not so. Questions of most serious importance remain to be settled. He was glad that the soldiers returning from the war to their homes were entering so earnestly upon the peaceful duties of citizens. It was to the soldiers that the country looked for guidance and advice.

What are the questions now to be settled ? On the one hand it is claimed that the moment traitors are deprived of their arms they become patriots; on the other hand that the true representatives of the people are to determine what are the true principles of liberty. [Applause.] It is declared by the representatives of the people that conquered rebels shall not be admitted to full privileges of citizenship, that rebellion shall not be made profitable. By the Constitutional amendment, it is provided that Southern representatives shall be diminished in proportion as the right of suffrage is denied. If we leave the "Constitution as it is," the Congressional representation of the slave states is increased fifteeen members, and the result of your perils is to make "treason profitable by doubling the power of the rebels instead of making it odious." Is there any citizen who reflects on his duty who is willing to do this? The first Philadelphia convention put forth a declaration of principles, assuring the people of the North that they revered the Constitation as their fathers made it. They dared not state the injustice done to the people of the North. These are the questions-whether the rebellious states are to be restored to their old positions in the government, or whether, unable to conquer in the field, they should be victorious in diplomacy. The question appeals to no party, but to country. It depends upon solid justice and equality. The Philadelphia convention asks how you can deny the right of representation to a sovereign State. What constitutes a State? Not the territory, but the people. If we find a State setting up disloyal regulations and tests, is such State entitled to loyal representation? The Southern people would not admit, as the Philadelphia convention says, that the rebellion was wrong.

Another subject appeals to every one. Efforts are made by the President to coerce public opinion into support of the executive policy. The President says the Union is restored. Who authorized him to make peace. The constitution says: "That Congress is to make war and therefore make peace," The President cannot make peace or war. Instead of Congress the President has trespassed upon his prerogative, in dictating to Congress. - The Constitution only allows him to execute not to make laws. Let him enforce the Civil Rights Bill, the Freedman's Bureau Bill; and all bills of this nature and peace will prevail. (Applause.) There will be no more bloodshed when the President returns to his duties and executes the people's will, Mr. Edmunds closed by protesting against the feeling of repugnance towards punishing traitors. The intelligent people of the North see what their rights and the interest of free society demands, and cannot be misled for a moment. Maine and Vermont have given their verdict, while the country was having the clearest exposition of the President's policy. We should not fear but go boldly forward trusting that patient watching and waiting will bring our reward at last. (Applause.)

Gen. Ripley, from the Committee on Nominations, then reported the following list of Delegates to the Pittsburg Convention, which were unanimously consirmed by the Convention. It will be noticed that they include some of the bravest and best soldiers that ever left Vermont.

Lt. W. B. Rowell, Lt. John W. Marsh, Lt. W. B. Perrin, Segt. H. P. Closson. First Cavalry .- Brevet Maj-Gen. Wm.

Wells, Lt-Col. John W. Bennett, Maj. C. A. Adams, Capt. Josiah Grant, Capt. J. W. Newton, Maj. J. H. Hazelton, Sergt. J. E. Perkins,

Col. Veazey, for the Committee on Resolutions, reported the following "short, sharp and decisive" series which were received with rounds of applause :

Resolved, That the Soldiers of Vermont fought to secure not a nominal Union but one of free speech, full protection for all loyal citizens and true equality of rights throughout the national domain. Resolved, That we regard impartial suffrage an an essential element of Republican equality. Residved. That magnanimity towards a fallen foe does not require that the conqueror shall permit the conquered to dictate the terms of peace.

Resolved, That to allow conquered rebels an increased representation in Congress as the fruit of their defeat is offering a premium for treason, and that we approve the amendment to the Constitution proposed by Congress.

Resolved, That we appreciate the services and sufferings of the Southern loyalists, and we pledge ourselves to stand by those who stood by us.

Resolved, That we deeply regret for their sakes that some of our old leaders in the field have gone over to the enemy and while we would gladly have them lead us now, we cannot consent to plunge with them into the cesspool of Johnson ian faithlessness.

Resolved. That threats of "Internerine war" have no terrors for us, and that we will sustain the representatives of the loyal masses as the rightful lawmakers of the land in any future contest with rebels or their friends, whether of the ballot or of the bayonet.

They were, of course, unanimously adopted.

On motion of Col. A. S. Tracy, this thanks of the convention were returned to the Rutland & Burlington and Vermont Central and Vermont & Canada Railroads, for their courtesy in carrying delegates to the convention for fare one way.

After many pleasant speeches and say-Ings the convention, on motion of Capt. Romeo H, Start, adjourned at about 10: 30 P. M.

Local and State Items.

CIRCUS AND MENAGERIE,-Balley & Co's, Circus and Menagerie will exhibit in this place on Saturday, the 22d inst. The Menagerie comprises one of the most complete and varied collections of specimens of the animal kingdom ever exhibited. Attached to this Menagerie are Sands, Nathans & Co's performing Elephants, Anthony and Cleopatra, Victoria and Albert. The wonders performed by these animals, or the novel and amusing character of their feats, we cannot describe-they must be seen to be appreciated. Melville's Australian Circ'as, judging from the following array of talent, cannot fail of being one of the best :

James Melville, Mme. Melv'ille, Australian Family, Philo Natharis, Beri Wilbanks, Prof. Ellingham, Will tam Kinkaid, Shappee & Whitney, Chas. Kennedy, Jas; Wambolt, Sam Melville and Wmi, Lester, together with a host of Tumbiers, AcroRusland County Court. SEPTEMBER TERM, 1866.

HON, ASAHEL PECK, Presiding.

BARNES FRISEIE, JOEL W. AINSWONTH, Judges. Wednesday, Sept. 12 .- The trial of Executors of James McDaniels vs. Thomas McDaniels was commenced.

Daniel Roberts, E. Edgerton and J. Prout for plaintiff.

Gov. Dillingham, Judge Isaac F. Redfield, C. C. Dewey and Andrew Potter for the defendant.

The following witnesses were examined: Henry H. Smith; Henry Hall; Wm. Otis; Obadiah Noble; Esther Pratt; Fanny L. Saulsbury; Isaac Mc-Daniels and John Hulett.

Court opens at 8 1-2 o'clock this morn-Thursday, Sept. 13, The trial of executors of McDaniels or McDaniels was continued through the day. Friday, Sept. 14 .- Executors of McDaniels vs. McDaniels, still on trial. The examination of Gen. Isaac McDaniels occupied the day. September 15th .- The court met in the the morning, and, on motion, adjourned to 2 o'clock this afternoon, when the trial of the McDaniels will case will be resumed. Sept. 18 .- The McDaniels will case still occupies the attention of the Court, and undoubtedly will continue to do so during the remainder of the week.

THE NEW BOOK, SHERBROOKE .- This new novel from the press of Appleton & Co., New York, which has been advertised in our columns, is having a very large sale. It is one of the most interesting, and at the same time one of the most high-toned books which has ap-peared for many a day. "Hope" and "Aunt Lydia" are charac-

"Hope" and "Aunt Lydia" are characters which will not soon be forgotten by those who have once read the work. It is very fascinating in plot and style, and so charms the reader that he is obliged to dispense with other duties until the book has been finished.

Accupent,-On the 9th inst., as Mr. Isaac Aldrich, a deaf and dumb man, of East Wallingford, was going to his work he was run over by a two horse team but escaped without any serious injury.

NEW POSTMASTER .- We hear that, Miles C. Huling has been appointed Postmaster at North Bennington, under ADMITTED .- Licut. Col. E. H. Powell, a Gative Vermonter, who was admitted tary supervision of a part of that State, as an officer of the freedmen's bureau, was admitted to the bar of this State on Saturday. We are informed that he intends to practice at Richford, where he is well known, and where he will undoubtedly prove as successful in law as he has proved as a soldier.

FIRES .- The Gas House at St. Albans caught fire on Sunday last, but It fortunately was discovered before the flames had made much progress, and extin-

Northern cattle than last week at Cambridge and although the trade was rather more prompt the drovers generally thought there was little, if any, change on their lighter stock, and many cows and young cattle sold at 19c.@lic. P B the best at about 12c. The supply of sheep and lambs is large and prices rather lower than higher, there were some lots of old sheep averaging about 100 m and fat at 6%@6% cents p m. fair quality at 3.50.04.00 B head, better ones 4.2504.50; inferior 2.50.03.00. Trade rather slow and some large lots unsold when we left Cambridge, and at least 200 of the Western at Brighton were not sold at the close of this re-

NEW BOOKS.

We have just returned from New York win-arge additions to our stock of miscellaheau Books, TUTTLE, GAY & CO. Ruthand, Sept. 18, 1866. d&wur BIBLES AND PRAYER BOOKS

We have just received from New York the arcest stock and prester variety of styles of Bibles and Prayer Books ever shown in this

TUTTLE, GAY & CO Rutland, Sept. 18, 1866 d&wee

OUARTO BIBLES.

A large stock of Family and Pulpit Biole-anging in price from $3.00 to $30.00 per cop-nat received.

TUTTLE, GAY & OI ENVELOPES.

An immensie stock of Envelopes now on hand to which the attention of constructs and the trade are invited. All styles and grades, Prices cannot fail to suite. TETTLE: GAY & CO Ratiand, Sept. 15, 1866. dawni

WRITING PAPERS.

Our stock of writing paper by completences stacing Commercial Note, all weights,

 Volumentation Solution 	1.19.1
Octavo Note,
Billet	200
Foiolecan.	ALC:
Lorent Cure	Ye
B20 Capa	22

dawn BLANK BOOKS.

A very heavy stock of Blank Books of EVERY DESCRIPTION, all manufactured by ourselves in a very superior manner, which are ordered at wholesale or retail at our usual low prices. TOTTLE, GAY & CO. Ratland, Sept. 18, 1890. d& will

DHOTOGRAPH ALBUMS.

ome and see the new stork and styles being Come and see the new store and service purchasing closewhere. TUTTLE, GAY & ... HERALD BOO'S Store Rutland, Sept. 18, 1866. GAW'I $150 REWARD.

Stolen from the S table of the subscriber, at Storen from the classe of the subscription farmension in a Sanday evening at 7 wheek Gray Mare Harness, and Light Top Bugy Vagon. Said mare is a years old, 15 hands into senght about 60 pounds, travels when as a rong fall, which she curries high. Silver plated Harness—been used for one year—is a plated Harness—been used for one year—is a Wagon al condition, ald Wagon, middling heavy, top blue find ushions whole, frimmed with teather. Make I the wagen, Jones & Son, West Tree, yellow triped, fine, wheels some new spakes in just painted black. The thieves were about 5 feet 5 incluse dress ed in black glothes, and had black Kossuth hat

Stor reward will be paid by the substitute for the recovery of the property, and Soffor the arrest of the thief. ELLAS ADEXINS, 351 Fulton St., Troy. S. C. RUSSELL, Warrensburgh Sept. 4th, 1866. Trdit.kwit.

A S HOT WEATHER APPROACH ES, and with it the probability that our country will soon be visited by that the Johgson regime. to the bar in Texas, while holding mili-

Lt Col A F Walker Eleventh " Major L G Kingsley Twelfth 22 Thirteenth " Capt. John Lonergan Fourteenth " Lieut, J H Lucia Fifteenth " Col. R Proctor Sixteenth " Col. W G Veazev Capt. E S Hartshorn Seventeenth " 1st Vt. Cavalry, Major J H Hazleton 1st " Battery, Lt. E E Greenleaf 24 11 Capt. J W Chase 3d " " Capt. R H. Start Sharpshooters Col. H R Stoughton

Capt. Lonergan entered at this time and took his seat as one of the Vice-Presidents. His appearance was the signal for long continued applause. He thanked the convention for the honor, and humorously said that when they attended a Fenian mass meeting, as he knew they would, he would have them elected Vice-Presidents. After fighting our "brothers" for four years, he saw no reason why the soldiers of the Union, among whom he was proud to number himself, should be unwilling to fight our "cousins" across the ocean. (Applause.)

Hon. Rufus F. Andrews, of New York, being present, was loudly called for, and came forward amidst loud applause.

He spoke as follows :

SPEECH OF HON. R. F. ANDREWS.

Mr. Andrews said he was present accidentally, and had not expected to make a speech. He remembered that he was present two years ago at a convention held in this city to nominate Presidential electors. The enthusiasm as usual in Vermont was great. He felt the necessity of again electing Abraham Lincoln President. That great and good man was triumphantly elected a second time. He (Mr. Andrews) then thought the work was nearly done. The soldiers had the enemy at bay before Richmond and in North Carolina, and were only waiting to know that they were to be sustained at home before striking the final blow. The election of Mr. Lincoln was an assurance that they would be supported by the North. They had not thought that any other would be President and knew that should he be elected they would be sustained. The soldiers struck the final blow and in the moment of victory the assassin laid our President low. It was his fortune to be present at at his dying bedside. There was sadness upon his heart. The country was in mourning. As soon as we saw our new President, Andrew Johnson, we felt, Union men felt, that he could be trusted after the declarations he had made. Everywhere there was a unanimity of sentiment to support him. He told us that "treason was a crime, and should be punished." He pledged himself to follow the policy of the party which elected him. But we have lost confidence in Andrew Johnson. We have found that he cannot be trusted. He stands as a constitutional President. We wish ed with infamy, lower than Buchanan, Pierce or Benedict Arnold. [Great applause. After Maj. Rounds had finished, Senator Edmunds was called for. Mr. Edmunds not being in the room, on motion of Col. Seaver, a committee of three, Col.

W. D. Munson, Capt. E. J. Ormsby and Lieut. G. H. Bigelow, was appointed to invite him to address the convention.

During the absence of the committee, Gen. BeWitt C. Clarke was called for and spoke briefly. He said that two years ago his ticket would have been Solomon Foot for President and Andrew Johnson as Vice-President. He regretted that he could not have had the former, but was glad that he was to have the latter part of the ticket. But he was disappointed in Andy Johnson. He did not think it was right for him, an office holder, to speak on this occasion. Laughter.] Between a radical Senate on one hand and a conservative President on the other, he hardly knew which way to turn. [Laughter.] Gen. Clarke closed with a capital story, illustrative of President Johnson, for which we regret that we have not space.

At this point the committee of invitation entered with Senator Edmunds, who was received with enthusiastic applause.

SENATOR EDMUNDS' ADDRESS.

Senator Edmunds was gracefully presented to the conventions by Col. Munson. He was sorry that he could not address them as fellow-soldiers. He rejoiced that they had come back covered with glory. The occasion which had called them together, though not involving so much of peril as that which had called them to join the army of the Union, was yet one of great moment. There yet remained to be gathered the hard-earned fruits of their trials, and questions were yet to be settled which logically grew out of the battle-fields over which they had swept from the him no harm; no, God forbid. We want | lakes to the ocean. Decismation is an

First Regiment .- Gen. J. W. Phelps, Lt-Col. P. T. Washburn, Lt-Col. W. Y. W. Ripley.

Second Regiment .- Col. A. S. Tracy, P. P. Pitkin, Lt. Chas. M. Bliss.

Third Regiment,-Col. T. O. Seaver, Lt-Col. Saml. E. Pingree, Surgeon Henry Janes, Capt. Wm. A. Pierce, Lt. Fred. Crane.

Fourth Regiment .- Brevet Brig-Gen. @. P. Foster, Lt-Col. Stephen M. Pingree, Maj. John E. Pratt, Capt. A. K. Nichols. Fifth Regiment .- Capt. Myron S. Dudley, Capt. Fred. F. Gleason, Sergt. Lucius Bigelow.

Sixth Regiment .- Lt-Col. Wm. J. Sperry, Capt. Henry Bushnell, Capt. A. H. Keith, Capt. M. W. Davis, Surgeon Phillips, Capt. L. S. Williams.

Seventh Regiment,-Col. Wm. C. Holbrook, Capt. E. A. Morse, Capt. J. B. Kilbourn, Capt. Riley E. Stearns, Lt. Wm. L. Harris.

Eighth Regiment .- Brig-Gen. Stephen Thomas Col. John B. Mead, Lt-Col. A. B. Franklin, Capt. Samuel W. Shattuck, Capt Edward Dewey, Lt. Fred. E. Smith. Ninth Regiment .- Brevet Brig-Gen. E. H. Ripley, Col. V. G. Barney, Lt-Col. E. S. Stowell, Surgeon B. W. Carpenter, Lt. Joel E. Baker.

Tenth Regiment .- Brig-Gen. Wm, W. Henry, Capt. John A. Sheldon, Capt. H. Dewey, Capt. Geo. E. Davis, Capt. P. D. Blodgett, Maj. Henry Kingsley, Sergt. H. M. Plerce.

Eleventh Regiment .- Brig-Gen. James M. Warner, Maj. Darius J. Safford, Lt-Col. A. F. Walker, Lt. E. L. Foster, Sergt. E. M Sherman, Capt. Theo. S. Peck.

Twelfth Regiment,-Lt-Col. R. Farnham, Lt. G. G. Benedict, Chaplain L O. Barstow, Private E. J. Bliss, Lt.G. H. Bigelow, Private Henry G. Catlin.

Thirteenth Regiment .- Lt-Col. Wm. D. Munson, Capt. L. L. Coburn, Maj. James J. Boynton, Capt. John Lonergan.

Fourteenth Regiment,-Maj. N. B. Hall, Capt. Noble F. Dunshee, Capt. W. C. Dunton, Lt. C. Field.

Fifteenth Reginent .- Col. Redfield Proctor, Maj. C. F. Spaulding, Surgeon Gates B. Bullard, Capt. John H. Oakes, Capt. R. P. Noyes, Lt. Edwin F. Hovey, Sergt. Thos. T. Sanborn.

Sixteenth Regiment .- Col. W. G. Veazey, Maj. W. Rounds, Capt. H. M. Bruce, Capt. A. C. Mason, Lt. Henry A. Fletcher, Lt. Hugh Henry.

Secenteenth Regineat .- Lt-Col. Lyman E. Knapp, Capt. C. D. Brainerd, Capt. E. J. Hartshorn, Lt. J. H. Lucia, Maj. James S. Peck, Surgeon P. O. M. Edson.

First Battery .- Lt. Ed. E. Greenleaf, Lt. S. B. Hebard.

Second Battery .- Capt. John W. Chase, Lt. Geo. W. Daskam, Private H. F. Tower.

pats, Vaulters, Dancers, &c., and a magtificent stud of performing; horses and trick nonies.

TEACHERS' FIXABINATION,-We are requested to state that there will be a publit examination of teachers by the Town School Superintendent at the High School, in this village, at 10 A. M., on Saturday next.

PERSONAL.-Gen. D. W. C. Clarke, clerk of the Executive Session of the United States Senate, is stopping in Burington, and is in much better health than for several years past.

Mr. Thomas L. Howe, a resident of Potsdam, N. Y., and a native of Jericho. Vt., ded in Potsdam on the 5th inst., aged 53 years. He died suddenly, of disease of the heart.

LARGE SUNPLOWER,-Mr. David Hudson, of Hampton, N. Y., has growing in his garden a sunflower which is four feet and three and one-half inches in circumbrence. Who can beat it ?

MASOLIC .- At the annual Communication of Vergennes Council No. 2, held at Vergennes Sept. 17, 1866, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year :

T. I. G. M .- Henry L. Sheldon. R. I. G. M .- Simeon Holton.

I. G. M .- George F. Skiff. Recorde:-John H. Simmons.

Treasurer-Henry C. Herton.

P. Conductor-Lorenzo H. Stowe. C. Guard-I. E. Smith.

Marshal-Norman J. Allen.

Steward-M. Phinney. Sentinel-Jacob Dewey.

-At the Annual Communication of Jerusalem Chapter No. 2, held at Vergennes Sept. 17th, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year :

M. E. H. P .- Ira Gifford. E. King-George F. Skiff.

E. Scribe-Simeon Holton. C. Host-John H. Simmons, P. Sojourner-L. H. Stowe, R. A. C .- Martin F. Allen. Master 2d Veil-W. F. Corey.

market on Tuesday, prices ruled about the same as last week ; 35 a 40 cents for choice lots. A smaller amount than usual was offered for sale, in consequence Third Battery .- Capt. Romeo H. Start, | of heavy raiss and bad roads.

guished. The sugar house of Lyman Hunt, of North Fairfax, was burned on Sunday afternoon, with all its contents, consisting of the implements used in making sugar. The loss is about $175. The fire must have been the work of an incendiary. A negro boy has been arrested, we believe, charged with firing the house.

FADING AWAY.

How often we see men and women who are fading away out of existence. They seem to have no especial disease, but general lassitude and langor, no ambition, no energy, indigestion, weakness, total inability to eat and relish food, &c., &c.,-all of which is nothing but Dyspep-

Coe's Dyspepsia Cure will surely cure every such case, no matter of how long standing. It is also a most excellent remedy for Cholera morbus, Cramp, or Colic, in either Stomach or Bowels. We advise all suffering to try it.

FENN & TUTTLE, Agents, Rutland.

to The Hair Restorer that gives the best satisfaction is Pestachine. Used and sold everywhere.

BOSTON LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Brighton, Cambridge and Medford.

For the week ending, Sept. 19, 1866.

Reported for the Rutland Herald.

AMOUNT OF STOCK AT MARKET. Cattle, Sheep, Shotes, Fat Hogs, Youls This week, 2623 11750 950 8200 $\begin{array}{r}
 100 \\
 75 \\
 75
 \end{array}$ Last week, 2600 10912 1100 One year ago, 3775 11034 500 2300 -1618

PRICES.

BEEF-Per 100 lbs, on total weight of hide half and medical to the second quality 12.50%14.00, second quality 12.50%14.00, second quality 12.50%13.00 third quality 10.50%11.50, some of the poorest buils &c. 8.00%29.00. WORKING OXEN-$150%215.

HANDY STEERS, 85@150 or much according their value for beef. their value for beef. COWS AND YOUNG CALVES-fair quality

STORES, Thin; young cattle for farmers, yearlings, 16223; two years old, 30245; three years old 45265 dols. SHEEP-Per B live weight, 4%26%c. SHEEP AND LAMES-Per head in lots 2.50 24 M

FAT HOGS-Per pound 10%@11 cents live weight. SHOTES-Wholesale, 10@12c. Retail, 13@15c. HIDES-Brighton 10%@11c. ? D. country lots, 9@10. Calf skins 25c. TALLOW-Brighton, 9@10c per D. Country

PELTS-50@$1 00 each.

REMARKS. Including those that arrived during the latter part of last week there are but 1,000 in number from the West, and of light quality at that, inferior to the average of Western. This has quickened the demand for the best lots and the best sales, both at Cambridge and Brighton, and also advanced the prices about %c, 9 1b on the best grades. Several of the Brighton butchers were at Cambridge for the best of stock, and as usual their presence encouraged the drovers but they wanted no ordinary cattle, of these there were plenty from Albany, so that while they helped the market on the best grades of oxen and steers they left the dry cows and the young cattle generally undisturb. Our figures show a larger number of

TERRIBLE DISEASE, CHOLERA,

Advertising monntehanks occupy large spaces in all of our public journals with accounts of the wonderful discoveries that they have made, and would sell to the unsuspecting their worth-less compounds which have only been put up for a few months, have never been tested and of course have never effected a cure. Beware of such men, they only want your money, while their preparations are not to be trustee

Therefore sensible people will not experi-ment with them, but will use the Great Standard remedy.

ALLEN'S CHOLERA SYRUP,

The tried and true and only reliable modicine for Cholera, Diarrhea, Dysentery, and every form of Summer complaint. Remember the

ALLEN'S CHOLERA SYRUP,

And take no other. Sold by all respectable Druggists and dealers in Modicines, and by the Sole proprietor.

GEO. W. CHAPLIN, Jr Druggist, Rotland, Vt.

J. F. HENRY & CO., Waterbury, Vt., Whole-sale Agents. july3d&wtf

VINELAND-FARM AND FRUIT LANDS, in a mild and healthful climate Thirty miles south of Philadelphia, by Bailroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md. The soil is rich and productive, varying from

The soil is rich and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for wheat, grass, corn, tobacco, fruits, and vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred vineyards and orckards have been planted out by expe-rienced fruit growers. Grapes, peaches, pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is al-ready one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of £fty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers with provison for only sold to actual settlers with provison for only sold to actual settlers with provision for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Acade-mies, societies of art and learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Acade-mies, societies of art and learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed, Price of farm land, twenty are lots and upwards, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre and village lots for sale. Fruits and vegetables ripen earlier in this dis-trict than in any other locality north of Nor-folk, Va. Improved places for sale.

folk, Va. Improved places for sale. Openings for all kinds of business, Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores, and the like; and Steam Power, with room, can be rented.

For persons who desire miid winters, a bealthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the beaut of defilimations is is another social eart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

heart of civinzation, it is worthy of a visit. Letters answered, and the Vinciand Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants. Address CHAS, K. LANDIS, Vinciand P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey. From report of Solon Robinson, Agricultura Editor of the Tribune: "It is one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level pos-tion and suitable condition for pleasant farming tion and suitable condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Praiaug13d&w6m rics,"

NEWMAN WEEKS,

Dealer in Crockery and China Ware, Glass, Britannis, Japanned and Stone Ware, Furniture and Carpets, Wooden Ware, Table Cutiery, Kerosene Oil, Lamps and Shades, Faper Hang-ings, Curtains and Fixtures, Brooms, Brushes &c., &c. No. 13, Brick Block, Merchants' Row, Rutland, Vt. aug80d&wif

2d Veil-Charles J. Soper. 1st Vell-J. H. Thorpe. Sentinel-Jacob Dewey. Treasurer-Henry C. Horton. hecorder-Henry L. Sheldog. Chaplain-K. Haven.

BUTTER .- In the St. Albans butter